

The don't call law for telemarketers is good. As for calling relatives & friends about business, that should not be included in that law.